Dear Dr. Nilam Choudhary

Jaipur Engineering College &amp; Research Centre,

Sub: Letter to nominate as an expert for the subject Operating System of B.Tech. course.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The vision and mission of the Rajasthan Technical University (RTU) is to provide, promote and enhance quality technical education in Rajasthan. University is playing an important role in making Rajasthan as one of the renowned state in technical education and boosting technical environment of the nation. In the difficult situation of covid-19 pandemic, RTU is committed to provide quality education to all students studying in its affiliated colleges, independent of their geographical location.

Working on the above philosophy, RTU has decided to upload expert lectures prepared by the expert faculty teaching in its affiliated colleges. In reward to this, the expert faculty will be offered an appreciation certificate.

In line to above, it gives us immense pleasure to inform that you have been shortlisted and nominated as expert faculty to prepare e-content/expert lecture for B.Tech. course, subject:Operating System , 5IT4-03, V-Semester, branch:Information Technology, session 2020-21.

Terms and conditions are as under-

1. Complete course have to be covered as per the syllabus and scheme available at RTU website.
2. The quality of e-content/lecture will be verified by the departmental experts committee
3. Expert lecture may be in form of video lectures/voiced PPT with some additional reading material.
4. The login details and password will be shared separately.
5. You are required to send a reply mail so that details of your particulars may be corrected.

You will be issued username and password for the same at the earliest.

Shortly, there will be a online video meeting with in-the chair HVC. The schedule for meeting will be informed shortly.

Best regards,

Dean Academic Affairs

Dear Prof. Dr.:

INVITATION AS INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR 2ND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SEMICONDUCTOR MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGY (ICoSeMT 2021) & INTERNATIONAL INVENTION, INNOVATION & DESIGN EXPO (INoDEx 2021)

On behalf of the organizing committee, it is my pleasure to invite you to become one of our International Advisory Committee at the upcoming 2nd International Conference on Semiconductor Materials and Technology (ICoSeMT 2021) and International Invention, Innovation & Design Expo (INoDEx 2021), which will be held virtually on 8th and 9th November 2021.

For your information, this event is the second event of the International Conference on Semiconductor Materials and Technology (ICoSeMT) series. The first event was held in 2019, co-organized by the Institute of Nano Optoelectronics Research and Technology (INOR), Universiti Sains Malaysia, Penang, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Cawangan Pulau Pinang (UITMCP) and Collaborative Research in Engineering, Science & Technology (CREST). This year, we will be organizing an innovation expo entitled International Invention, Innovation & Design Expo (INoDEx 2021) as the conference sub-event.

The aim of ICoSeMT 2021 & INoDEx 2021 is to provide a platform to the students, academicians, researchers, and professional groups from within and outside the country to share knowledge and latest findings as well as experience in the field of semiconductor materials, technology and science.

With the addition of Jaipur Engineering College & Research Centre (JECRC) as our International Advisory Committee for the ICoSeMT 2021 & INoDEx 2021, we believe that our goal and great benefit to the society will be realized. We are pleased and honoured if you would consent to be one of our International Advisory Committee for ICoSeMT 2021 and INoDEx 2021. We would highly appreciate it if you could recommend a few participants from your university to take part in the events.

Thank you.

Dear Dr. Vyas,

I have received a research article that has been submitted to OSA Continuum that might be of interest to you. OSA Continuum is a new OSA journal meant to publish optics and photonics research based on sound methodology, data-supported conclusions, and strong technical presentation. Unlike other OSA Journals, the reporting of novel and impactful results is not a requirement for acceptance. More information on the journal can be found at <https://www.osapublishing.org/osac/journal/osac/default.cfm>.

I would like for you to consider reviewing this research article. The review criteria outlining requirements for publication in OSA Continuum can be found at <https://www.osapublishing.org/submit/review/JournalReviewCriteria.cfm>. Please review this criteria.

In order to meet the journal's goal for timely publication, I would appreciate receiving your review within 14 days. However, in case you have a very busy schedule, I would much prefer that you take a little longer to prepare a thoughtful, careful review rather than to send in a quick one.

Title: Design and Analysis of Multi-Core Whispering Gallery Mode Bio-Sensor with Detection of Cancer cells and Diabetes Tear cells

Abstract: Whispering gallery mode (WGM) has revolutionized the field of optical sensors and their sensitivity. This paper presents a design and simulation of a novel structure called "Multi-core Whispering gallery mode (WGM)" based on multiple evanescent waves coupling for detecting the biomedical component using output transmission spectrum shift for 0.01 refractive index variation respected to wavelength shift sensitivity 600 nm/RIU. Our multi-core whispering gallery mode (WGM) sensor exhibits a sensitivity of 650 nm/RIU, 666.67 nm/RIU, and 642.285 nm/RIU, respectively, for the detection of Cancerous Basal, HeLa, and MDB-MB-231 cells. In addition, it is also capable of detecting affected diabetes tear cells from healthy cells with a sensitivity of 650 nm/RIU. So, the novelty of this work is that we have proposed a novel multi-core Whispering gallery mode (WGM) sensor with a detection capability of biological fluids, cancerous cells, and affected diabetes tear cells. To the best of the authors' knowledge, the resultant sensitivity of our sensor probably the highest compared to other competing WGM based bio-sensor to this date.
