Dear Mr. Senthil,

As discussed with you, we are providing the Numerical protection relay (IED) for vocational training purpose without any charges, please find the attached draft copy of agreement in order to offer the different Siemens devices for the purpose of Vocational training/DEMO/Display purposes.

Please revert with confirmation agreeing to the terms and conditions of the draft agreement.

Based on the confirmation, we will confirm the specific devices to be supplied and then the actual agreement has to be laid out on the institutes official letterhead with stamp/signature from authorized signatory with all relevant details in order to proceed forward with this initiative.

Please note that the institute should be willing to bear the freight expenses and any other minor tax liabilities that may arise due to the transportation of the devices from our factory to their mentioned address.(Any road permits etc may have to be arranged by the institute)

The devices should not be used for any commercial activities whatsoever.

We will provide you device catalogs(pdf) and/or associated descriptions of the devices for the benefit of the institute.

With best regards,
Jaiprakash Sharma
