DAY 1

OPENING CEREMONY

The inauguration ceremony of the JECRC Model United Nations (MUN) was a momentous occasion that commenced with the traditional lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the dispelling of darkness and the pursuit of knowledge. This symbolic act marked the beginning of a two-day event that promised to be intellectually stimulating and transformative for all participants.

The ceremony was graced by the presence of distinguished guests, faculty members, and students from various educational institutions. The lighting of the lamp was followed by a series of insightful speeches that set the tone for the event. Eminent speakers shared their wisdom on the significance of diplomacy, international cooperation, and the role of youth in shaping a better world. Their words resonated with the eager delegates, inspiring them to embrace the challenges of diplomacy and global problem-solving.

ABOUT THE CHIEF GUEST

MR. RAMANAN RAMANATHAN

One of the highlights of this year's conference was the presence of the esteemed Chief Guest, Mr. Ramanan Ramanathan, who has served as the First Mission Director of the Atal Innovation Mission (AIM) and Additional Secretary at NITI Aayog.

Ramanan Ramanathan is a highly esteemed figure in the field of innovation and technology in India. He is a former (First) Mission Director of Atal Innovation Mission, a flagship program of the Indian Government that aims to promote innovation and entrepreneurship in the country. Ramanan also served as an Additional Secretary at NITI Aayog, a policy think-tank that works towards sustainable development goals in India. With over two decades of experience in innovation and entrepreneurship, Ramanan has made significant contributions to the growth of the startup ecosystem in India. In his speech at JECRC MUN, he spoke fondly of the importance of such events and encouraged the audience to participate with a zeal and evolve into tomorrow's leaders.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Another highlight of this year's conference was the presence of the World Champion of Public Speaking (1995), Mr. Mark L. Brown as our Keynote Speaker who is an expert in the art of communication.

With a dynamic and engaging speaking style, Mr. Mark captivated the audience with his powerful messages and inspiring stories. As the 1995 World Champion of Public Speaking, he brought a wealth of knowledge and expertise to our MUN conference. With a passion for helping individuals unleash their full potential, Mark has dedicated his career to empowering others to become effective communicators and leaders. We were thrilled to have Mr. Mark Brown grace our event and share his insights on the power of effective public speaking. Mr. Brown's expertise and experience have earned him a reputation as one of the greatest communicators and leaders of our time. With his captivating presence and ability to engage audiences, he has inspired countless people to strive for excellence.

CONFERENCE DAY 1

The first day of the JECRC Model United Nations (MUN) was an exhilarating experience that commenced with the registration of eager participants from various schools and colleges. The anticipation in the air was palpable as delegates gathered to embark on this enlightening journey of diplomacy and global problem-solving.

After registration, the day began with a series of speeches by organizers and experienced MUN veterans. These speeches provided insights into the rules and procedures of the MUN, emphasizing the importance of respect, diplomacy, and cooperation throughout the sessions.

Subsequently, participants were assigned to their respective conference rooms, where the real action unfolded. The sessions kicked off with a comprehensive explanation of the guidelines, rules of procedure, and agenda. Delegates then engaged in both moderated and unmoderated caucuses, where they discussed and deliberated on critical global issues. The moderated caucuses allowed for structured debate, while the unmoderated caucuses encouraged informal discussions and coalition-building.

Day 1 was a dynamic start to the event, fostering collaboration, critical thinking, and diplomatic skills among the delegates.

DELEGATE BALL DAY 1

In the glamorous aura of Hotel Grand Maple, Day 1 of the 12th edition of JECRC MUN unfolded in a symphony of joy and fellowship at the eagerly awaited Delegate Ball. After a riveting day filled with seven hours of intense discussions and passionate debates, delegates rocked their formal attire for elegance and style, transforming the atmosphere into an evening that seamlessly blended celebration with professionalism. A festivity of shared accomplishments and newfound friendships.

Within the resplendent Grand Maple Hotel, echoes of laughter, the hoots, and the bang of the DJ created an ambiance that resonated with the collective spirit of achievement and newfound connections. Delegates, having shed the weight of formalities, engaged in lively conversations, dismantling the barriers established during the day's deliberations.

The Delegate Ball served as both a stress buster and a nexus for personal connections, a place where stories were shared and friendships forged under the glittering chandeliers. This soiree encapsulated the essence of JECRC MUN—a harmonious fusion of professional synergy and unrestrained enjoyment. As the night progressed, it became evident that the bonds nurtured on the dance floor and over shared narratives would endure well beyond the conference confines, leaving an indelible imprint on the memories of all attendees. The 12th edition of JECRC MUN not only enriched minds but also showcased the potential of unity and celebration within a global community of aspiring leaders.

CONFERENCE DAY 2

On the second day of the JECRC Model United Nations (MUN), the conference resonated with a vibrant display of cultural diversity as students adorned traditional attire, transforming the atmosphere into a colorful tapestry of global representation. Against this rich backdrop, delegates passionately delivered closing speeches, articulating their nations' positions and offering innovative solutions to pressing global issues.

After hours of insightful discussions and diplomatic negotiations, the day culminated in a momentous conclusion. It was the very purpose for which every participant had gathered—to unravel solutions for the agendas at hand. Each delegate, representing a unique perspective and contributing to the collective intellectual fervor, aimed to make a significant difference and contribute to global growth and humanity.

The closing speeches, infused with conviction and diplomatic finesse, showcased the depth of research and commitment each delegate brought to the conference. As the second day drew to a close, the shared sense of purpose and the collaborative pursuit of solutions left an indelible mark, reinforcing the transformative power of MUN conferences in fostering global understanding and cooperative problem-solving.

DAY 2

CLOSING CEREMONY

The closing ceremony of the JECRC Model United Nations marked the pinnacle of the event, adorned with a distinguished speech by the esteemed director, Mr. Arpit Agarwal. His insightful words resonated with the assembled students, inspiring them to persist in their diplomatic pursuits and global cooperation endeavors. The ceremony reached its zenith as awards were presented, honoring outstanding speakers and delegates for their exceptional contributions.

Radiating warmth and camaraderie, the event concluded with smiles and candid reflections, as delegates openly shared their memorable experiences. A vibrant touch was added to the festivities as a live singer delivered an electrifying performance, creating an atmosphere of jubilation that elevated the Closing Ceremony into an unforgettable occasion. The harmonious blend of diplomacy, camaraderie, and music encapsulated the spirit of the entire MUN conference, leaving an indelible impression on all participants.

Heartfelt appreciation was extended to every member involved—organizing committee, faculties, dignitaries, delegates, and participating institutions—for their unwavering dedication, making the 12th edition a resounding success and a testament to the power of collaborative global engagement.
